

Chandigarh College of Engineering and Technology (Degree Wing)

Celebration of INDEPENDENCE 70 (AZAADI 70)

August 19th, 2016

The NSS unit of CCET (Degree Wing), Chandigarh celebrated “Azaadi 70” on August 19th, 2016. The event comprised of the following

1. Essay writing competition
2. Slogan writing competition
3. Quiz
4. Patriotic Singing
5. Skit on “Yaad Karo Kurbaani”

The day commenced with cultural performances by the Music club and the Dramatics club of the college. The skit put on by the dramatics members showcased the sacrifices made by our forefathers for India’s liberation.

A short quiz was conducted on the topic ‘History of India’. Out of the 17 participating teams, 4 qualified for the final round. Sophia Dhawan and Rizul Goyal from CSE 3rd Year bagged the first prize.

Patriotic posters were designed by the students for Slogan writing competition. Pratishma, Yukti Bhatia, and Kamakshi from 2nd year won the first, second and third prizes, respectively through a common vote.

The students participated in essay writing on the topic “Independence Day”, “Yaad Karo Kurbaani” and “Azaadi 70”. Out of the 18 entries received the essays by Yukti Bhatia of 2nd Year, Ashi Gupta from 4th year and Karandeep Singh Kamboj from 2nd year, were chosen the best ones on the basis of style of writing, content and language.

Dr. MS Gujral, Principal CCET (Degree Wing) delivered an enlightening speech and encouraged the students to contribute to the nations progress through the line of work they’ve chosen. The Winners of different events were awarded momentos.

