

FRESHER'S WEEK DAY 4: CONSONANCE BY 7 NOTES CLUB

On 26th September 2024, 7 Notes CCET Cultural Clubs under Department of Student Welfare Chandigarh College of Engineering and Technology (CCET), Degree Wing hosted its spectacular event, Consonance, filled with creativity and rhythm. The atmosphere was thrilling as club members shared their vision of fostering a love for music among students. The audience was immediately captivated by heartfelt shayaris, setting the tone for an evening rich in emotions and artistry.

Consonance featured a diverse lineup of captivating musical performances, including a skilled piano recital, an electrifying beatboxing segment, and dynamic rap numbers. The event showcased the club's versatility across genres, ranging from soulful ballads to energetic tracks. It also served as a platform for the club to introduce its musical initiatives and passion for the art.

A key highlight was the audience's active participation, with attendees joining the artists on stage and singing along, creating an engaging and inclusive atmosphere. The evening concluded with a collaborative rendition of "Zariya," leaving a lasting impression of unity and the power of music to bring people together.

